COMPUTER LITERACY PROGRAM

Institution has huge computer literacy center with a good number of new generation updated computers and internet facility. Our lab has 60 computers attached with printers and internet connection. Students from all faculties have to compulsory to join the programme at the entry level to encounter the new demands of information technology. Every year literacy center conducted different programmes for the teaching and non teaching faculty members too. During the training HTML, DTP, MS office, Excel, Internet, tally, etc. were taught to the employees.