Subject: Inter Library Loan Facility

Respected Sir/Madam

I wish to inform that the college has a central library containing books on different subjects. But some time there is a demand for certain books which are either not available or have been issued. So a teacher, Research scholar or Students who needs a particular book cannot avail the services. In interest of such teachers, research scholars and students the college wishes to sign an agreement of interlibrary loan with your esteemed college.

You are requested to respond to this offer at the earliest

Thanking You.

Yours Faithfully

15. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India. The Parties undertake and agree that they shall at all times during the term of this Agreement ensure compliance with all applicable laws, while discharging their responsibilities under this Agreement.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. Any and all disputes, differences, controversies and questions directly or indirectly arising at any time under, out of, in connection with or in relation to this Agreement (or the subject matter of this Agreement) including, without limitation, all disputes, differences, controversies and questions relating to the validity, interpretation, construction, performance and enforcement of any provision of this Agreement ("Disputes") shall, so far as it is possible, be settled amicably through consultation between the Parties.
2. If after 30 (thirty) days of consultation, the Parties have failed to reach an amicable settlement, on any or all of the Disputes, such Disputes shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration at the request of either of the Parties upon written notice to that effect to the other. Such arbitration shall be in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and shall be held in Kolkata. All proceedings of such arbitration shall be the English language. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, one each appointed by the COLLEGE and the Company and the third appointed by the two arbitrators. Any award rendered upon such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Parties.

3. Nothing shall preclude either party from seeking interim or permanent equitable or injunctive relief, or both, from any court having jurisdiction to grant the same. The pursuit of equitable or injunctive relief shall not be a waiver of the duty of the Parties to pursue any remedy for monetary damages through the arbitration described in this Section.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY

1. This Agreement and all information exchanged between the Parties under this Agreement or during the negotiations preceding this Agreement is confidential to them and may not be disclosed to any third party. Except with the prior written consent of the other Party, each Party shall hold in strictest confidence and take all necessary precautions to secure any Confidential Information of the other Party. Disclosure of such information shall be restricted solely to employees, agents, consultants and representatives on a strict need-to-know basis who have been advised of their obligation with respect to Confidential Information and have agreed to such obligation. The term "Confidential Information" shall mean all non-public information that this Agreement or the disclosing Party designates as being confidential, or which, under the circumstances of disclosure ought to be treated as confidential. "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation, the existence and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, information relating to the financial and accounting books and records, marketing or promotion of any product or services, business policies or practices, customers, potential customers or, documentation, or information received from others that a Party is obligated to treat as confidential. If a Party has any questions as to what comprises such Confidential Information, that Party shall consult with the other Party. "Confidential Information" shall not include information that was known to a Party prior to the other Party's disclosure, or information that becomes publicly available through no fault of the Party.
2. The obligations of confidentiality do not extend to information which:
 - i. is disclosed to employees, legal advisers, auditors and other consultants of a Party or its related bodies corporate, requiring the information; or
 - ii. is disclosed with the consent of the Party who supplied the information; or
 - iii. is, at the date this Agreement is entered into, lawfully in the possession of the recipient of the information through sources other than the Party who supplied the information; or
 - iv. is required by law, regulation, governmental or judicial order to be disclosed; or
 - v. is generally and publicly available, other than as a result of breach of confidence by the Person receiving the information.
3. To the extent any Party is under an obligation to disclose information to any governmental authorities, it shall promptly inform the other Party of such obligation (prior to making the disclosure, if possible and practicable) and shall afford the other Party the ability to take protective measures, if need be, to safeguard their own legitimate interests. In case there is any governmental agency or instrumentality or Court order requiring the COLLEGE to part with any of such information, the COLLEGE, its agent or subcontractor, as the case may be, shall provide an express notice of twenty four hours to the Company before complying with any such requirements and in such eventuality of compliance, they shall also be required to observe strict diligence in order to make sure that breach of Company and business confidentiality with the Company can be limited to the minimum extent possible.

18. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be in default of this Agreement or liable to the other party for any delay or default in performance where occasioned by any cause of any kind or extent beyond its control, including but not limited to, armed conflict or economic dislocation resulting there from; embargoes; shortages or labor, raw materials, production facilities or transportation; labor difficulties; civil disorders of any kind; action of any civil or military authorities (including priorities and allocations); fires; floods; telecommunications failures; Internet slow-downs; and accidents. The dates on which the obligations of a party are to be fulfilled shall be extended for a period equal to the time lost by reason of any delay arising directly or indirectly from:

2. Severance:

The validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired if any provision of this Agreement is rendered void, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any law.

Should any provision of this Agreement be or become ineffective for reasons beyond the control of the Parties, the Parties shall use reasonable endeavors to agree upon a new provision which shall as nearly as possible have the same commercial effect as the ineffective provision.

3. No Waiver:

Neither the waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure from it by any party shall be effective unless it is in writing. A waiver or consent shall be effective only for the purpose for which it is given. No default or delay on the part of any Party in exercising any rights, powers or privileges operates as a waiver of any right, nor does a single or partial exercise of a right preclude any exercise of other rights, powers or privileges.

4. Entire Agreement:

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matters of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

5. Amendments:

No modification, amendment or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing specifically referring to this Agreement and duly signed by each of the Parties.

6. No Partnership:

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between the Parties or constitute either Party the agent of the other for any purpose other than those agreed on in this Agreement.

7. Counterparts:

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
AGREEMENT FOR ACADEMIC COOPERATION BETWEEN
NABIRA MAHAVIDYALAYA, KATOL (MS)
AND AYURVAN FOUNDATION, NAGPUR (MS)

NABIRA MAHAVIDYALAYA, KATOL (MS) AND AYURVAN FOUNDATION, NAGPUR (MS) believing that rich academy of university/college and excellent creation of visionaries can be put together to the benefit of students, biodiversity, nation and human welfare, conclude this agreement.

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is meant to describe the nature of extended cooperation, working together in the areas of common interests, voluntary sharing of knowledge, exploring research opportunities, participation in the activities with mutual consent and any such beneficial factor. This document shall remain as only guideline and not a legal binding on both the institutions. Nothing, therefore, shall diminish the fully autonomy of either institution, nor may any constraints be imposed by either upon the other.

The memorandum of understanding shall remain in force for a period of three years and can further be renewed with consent of both the parties. Either party can terminate this memorandum of understanding by giving two months' notice to other party.

HENCE, NABIRA MAHVIDYALAYA, KATOL (MS) AND AYURVAN FOUNDATION, NAGPUR (MS) agree to act upon following common mutual interest:

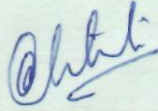

1. The purpose of this agreement is to develop links between academy and creativity with mutual cooperation between both the institutions.
2. Both the institutions shall extend their cooperation in the areas of research and development and the contribution shall be limited to the willingness and/or restrictions by virtue of legal frame of the concerned institute.
3. Both the institutions shall provide each other knowledge, laboratory assistance and infrastructure of the choice of institution in possession to work out any research or industrial application with prior consent of both the institutions.
4. Both the institutions shall work together to develop cultivation practices of the herbs those are presently obtained from forests for the purpose of medicine or good health. Persons in such development from both the institutions shall be honoured with their due mention in such document that shall support the establishment of the said cultivation practise.
5. Both the institutions shall take any activity/project/joint excursion, if required to fulfil the requirements of above interests with mutual consent.
6. Both the institutions shall depute their representatives to visit each other for the purpose of delivering lectures, participating in the seminars, conducting observations and providing guidance, approving the work done and/or any such act to bring out successful outcome from the agreed joint research programme or human welfare programme in the larger interest of positive outcome from the MOU. Any such deputation shall be voluntary on the part of institutions involved in the MOU.
7. AYURVAN FOUNDATION shall constitute committees to monitor development, evaluate contribution, and encourage further participation in the interest of bio diversity and human welfare. NABIRA MAHAVIDYALAYA may depute faculty to be members of such committees. AYURVAN FOUNDATION shall only take the opinion, suggestion and expert comments for the committee members without any commitments from such members. AYURVAN FOUNDATION may consider any conditions required prior to the inclusion of faculty as members of such committees from NABIRA MAHAVIDYALAYA.
8. Financial and/or funding considerations shall become the subject of specific discussion and agreement within the framework of a separate implementation agreement. No financial commitment whatsoever, on the part of either signatory to this general document is intended or implied.
9. It is understand that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in the all above clauses shall depend upon availability of resources and/or sanctions from concerned authorities of the institutions and/or financial support at the institute concerned.

10. Should any collaborative research activity under this agreement result in any potential for intellectual property, both institutes shall seek an equitable and fair understanding as to ownership and other property interests that may arise.
11. Each institution shall designate a liaison officer to develop and coordinate the specific activities agreed upon. The designated liaison officers for this Memorandum of Understanding are:
